N°. 326.

MADRID, March 25.

IT is currently reported, that a conſiderable Body of Troops is to be tranſported to Oran. If this Report ſhould prove true, we may conclude that the Court has not yet laid aſide the Project talk'd of laſt Year, of attacking the Algerines with the utmoſt Vigour, both by Sea and Land. It is certain, that they continue to work hard in our Ports, in building and equipping divers Men of War and other Veſſels; and from Carthagena we hear, that two 50 Gun Ships, with four large Xebeques, ſail'd from thence the 13th Inſtant, on a Cruize againſt the Barbary Pyrates, and that they are to be followed by ſeveral other Ships. They alſo tell us from Carthagena, that ſeveral Veſſels laden with Timber, and other Naval Stores, lately arrived there.

Copenhagen, April 3. We are actually equipping with all poſſible Diligence, four Men of War, and ſix Frigates, on board of which 600 Regular Troops are to be embark'd, and 'tis given out, that this Squadron is bound for the Coaſt of Africa, in order to make a new Settlement there, which we expect will prove very advantageous to our Commerce.

Lubeck, April 3. We are now informed that Mr. Ammon, one of the King of Pruſſia's Chamberlains, has ſucceeded in the Commiſſion he went to execute at the French Court, the principal Article of which was to ſettle the Contingent of Troops which that Crown ſhould furniſh to his Pruſſian Majeſty in caſe of Need; and 'tis pretended that this Contingent is fixed at 30,000 Foot, and 10,000 Horſe.

Stockholm, April 9. His Majeſty Adolphus Frederick having been proclaimed, the Day after the Death of our late excellent Sovereign, King of Sweden, of the Goths and Vandals, &c. went in the Afternoon to the Senate, where after ſwearing to the Obſervation of the following Inſtrument, he ſigned it with his own Hand.

Whereas the United States of the Kingdom of Sweden have of their full and intire Movement, and by a free and voluntary Election, choſen me for Succeſſor to the Kingdom of Sweden, of the Goths and Vandals, I ſhould be wanting to their ſingular Confidence in me, if upon my Acceſſion to the Throne, which is devolved to me by the Diſpoſal of the Almighty, and the free Choice of the Nation, I did not ratify, in the moſt ſolemn Manner, my former Aſſurances of maintaining them with my Life and Blood in the Exerciſe of the pure Doctrine and of that Religion, which they profeſs, and to ſecure them the Enjoyment of their Liberties and Privileges. And my Will and Deſire being very remote from any thing which may be called, or have the leaſt Shadow of Conſtraint, I declare by this public Aſſurance, to which I bind myſelf by Oath, upon my Royal Word and Faith, that it is my Intention not only to govern my Kingdom according to the Laws of Sweden, and the Form of Government ſettled and ſworn to in the Year 1720, and conformably to the Aſſurances by me given to the States of the Kingdom in 1742; but I ſhall alſo account him or them moſt dangerous Enemies to myſelf, and the worſt Traytors to their Country, who in public or private, or under any Pretence whatſoever, ſhall make any Mention or manifeſt any Deſign or Deſire of introducing into the Kingdom a deſpotic Power or arbitrary Sovereignty; So help me God. Signed,

ADOLPHUS FREDERICK,

At Stockholm, April 6, 1751.

The Breath was no ſooner out of the late King's Body than the Ruſſian, Imperial, French and Pruſſian Miniſters, who had kept Couriers in Readineſs, inſtantly diſpatched them to their reſpective Courts with the News thereof.——The Evening before his Death, the King confeſſed in the moſt moving Terms with the Prince Succeſſor, the Princeſs his Conſort, Count Teſſin and others, recommending the Nation to them, and expreſſing the greater Serenity at his Departure, as he left the Kingdom in Peace, and died in Hopes of the Continuance of that Happineſs.——His preſent Majeſty has writ a Letter to the Empreſs of Ruſſia with his own Hand, declaring his ſincere Deſire of living in the moſt perfect Harmony with her Imperial Majeſty——The late King's Funeral will not be till the Meeting of the States of the Kingdom in October next, till when, after lying in State a few Days, his Royal Body will be depoſited in a Vault.

Vienna, April 3. The Levies for compleating the Imperial Troops are carried on with all the Succeſs that can be wiſh'd. The 27th ult. a Body of Recruits was ſent away to Hungary, and will ſpeedily be followed by a greater Number. We are aſſured that the Court has reſolved to erect four large Magazines of Proviſions and Warlike Stores in that Kingdom, three in Bohemia, two in Moravia, and two in Auſtria.

Paris, April 9. The laſt Letters from Toulon adviſe, that they have put three new Men of War on the Stocks, and are likewiſe building eighteen Sloops of War of a new Invention.

Vienna, April 10. The Elector Palatine, has preſented a Memorial to this Court, containing a very conſiderable Demand for Proviſions and Forage furniſhed to the Imperial Troops, during the late War; which Memorial, is ordered to be immediately taken into Conſideration.

Bruſſels, April 19. 'Tis ſaid that a Camp is ſoon to be formed in the Neighbourhood of Ruremonde upon the Meuſe, and that it will be compoſed of two Battalions, of each of the Regiments in Garriſon in the Neighbouring Provinces. The Detachment of Matroſſes who are here, have received Orders to march for Mechlin, in order to join their Company; and a Battalion of the Regiment of Ligne, is arrived here from Mons, on its Way to Bruges.

Leghorn, April 7. The Emperor's three Ships of War, which arrived here lately from the Levant, and the Coaſt of Barbary, have performed their Quarantine, and are now unloading. The Captain of a Merchantman, who arrived here a few Days ago from the Iſland of Capree, reports, that three Genoeſe Frigates had taken an Algerine Corſair of 18 Guns and 47 Men, off the Iſland of Pianoſa, after a Chace of three Days. There were two Corſairs in Company when the Genoeſe firſt diſcovered them, but one made her Eſcape. We are informed by a Venetian Felucca, that the Turkiſh Troops quartered in Dalmatia, have received Orders to hold themſelves in Readineſs to march. This News appears the more ſurprizing, as we are ſenſible of the pacific Temper of the Grand Signior, and of the ſtrong Aſſurances he has given for ſome Time paſt of his ſincere Deſire to live in perfect Friendſhip with all the Chriſtian Powers.

Stockholm, April 15. After the King had ſigned the Act or Inſtrument mentioned in our Advices, and taken an Oath to obſerve it, his Majeſty explained himſelf in the following Terms to the Senate:

'Being called, by the Death of the late King, to fill the Throne of this Kingdom, I renew with Pleaſure, at my Acceſſion to the Crown, the Aſſurances I formerly gave of my invariable Reſolution to reign and govern agreeably to the Oath I have taken, and according to the receiv'd and eſtabliſh'd Laws of the Kingdom. There is nothing in this World I have more at Heart, than the Safety, Proſperity, and Advancement of every Thing that may conduce to the Advantage of the State, and the Benefit of my Subjects. I cannot

view the weighty Office of Governing in the preſent Conjuncture, without reflecting on all the Care and Trouble that muſt inevitably attend it: However, I truſt entirely to the Integrity of theſe Gentlemen, the Senators, being fully perſuaded that they will faithfully aſſiſt me with their good and ſalutary Advice, which I ſhall always receive in a grateful and friendly Manner.'

The Speech which Count Teſſin made the ſame Day in the Senate, has ſince been publiſhed, and contains among other Things, the following remarkable Paſſages.

'May the Bleſſings of the Lord wait round your Majeſty's Throne! May the Lord's Anointed be protected by the Strength of his Almighty Arm! May the deſtroying Angel be driven far away from the Country and its Inhabitants; and may Peace flouriſh in our Dwellings! But if ever we ſhould be obliged, marching by your Majeſty's Side, to repel with the Sword any Invaſion unjuſtly attempted, may the God of all Mercy then go before your Majeſty, and fill your Royal Perſon with his Spirit, to the End that a free People may never become Slaves to a deſpotic Potentate, and that the willing Obedience of the Subjects may be the beſt Pledge of their Attachment and Fidelity to their King.'

Genoa, April 10. The Number of Barbary Corſairs daily encreaſes in the Mediterranean; and Advices from Tunis, Algiers, and Tripoli, bring, that they are fitting out ſeveral more, which will ſoon be ready to put to Sea.

LONDON, April 4.

From Denmark we are informed, that by the great Encouragement the King gives his Subjects to Trade, a Scheme is propoſed which will increaſe it, by forming a great Magazine of all kinds of Naval Stores in the Iſland of St. Thomas in the Weſt Indies, to ſupply all Nations who trade into thoſe Parts, and the better to accommodate Ships or Veſſels that may want Careening, to ſtop Leaks, or Repair; (an Invention formerly practiſed in Denmark) whereby a Ship either light or laden may be careened in 24 Hours, and fit to go to Sea again, if ſhe wants no other Repair. And it is ſaid the Propoſer of this Scheme is ſhortly expected in that Country, to have the direction of the Undertaking.

Letters received by the Eaſt India Company, adviſe, that [illegible] Perſon who called himſelf Nabob, and who lately killed the Nabob that acted under the Great Mogul, and defeated his Army, has ſince that Time, taken upon himſelf the Government of ſeveral Towns and Provinces, and a great Number of French having inliſted themſelves under him, ſo that he began to be very powerful; the Great Mogul ordered his Chief General with a powerful Army, to march againſt him; which he accordingly did, and came up with him near Pondicherry, when a bloody Battle enſued, wherein the Nabob's Army was defeated, and himſelf with his ſcattered Men, obliged to retire under the Walls of Pondicherry, to beg the Protection of the French Government. Above 1000 French were killed on the Spot.

Letters from Peterſburg inform us, that all the Officers belonging to her Imperial Majeſty's Marine, who had been for ſometime reſident in that City, were all withdrawn to their reſpective Poſts, purſuant to Order.

Letters from Semlin bring Advice, that the Turks are greatly in Motion on the Frontiers, and that a conſiderable Body of Janizaries are aſſembled on the Borders of the Danube.

Our laſt Letters from France make poſitive Mention of the great Augmentation of the naval Force of that Kingdom, which it's ſaid, are intended to render that Crown not only reſpectable, but even formidable in its Colonies of America, whither ſeveral Men of War, Frigates, Troops in great Numbers, Ammunition, and Proviſion in large Quantities, are from Time to Time ſending; ſo that thoſe Colonies, it's ſaid, will ſhortly be Peopled in ſuch Manner, as to have ſufficiently for Culture, for carrying Arms in Caſe of need, and for their Marine.

Extract of a Letter from Cadix, dated April 13, 1751.

'The ſeaſonable Weather we have enjoyed in theſe Parts, makes the Corn Fields flouriſh to Content; the Barley is ſo forward, that we ſhall begin cutting in three Weeks, and reaping Wheat in June. Letters from other Parts of this Kingdom, denote every where the like flouriſhing Condition in the Corn Fields, ſo that we have in View the Satisfaction to enjoy great Plenty of Corn in the approaching Harveſt, and be in a Condition to ſupply other Countries if they want.' [Our Markets in the Weſt-Indies are, juſt now, much glutted; our Veſſels at a Stand where to go; our Markets riſen here;—And if the Spaniards ſhall be able to ſupply their own Markets, Neceſſity will oblige us to try ſome other Methods of merchandizing, or elſe lay up our Veſſels, and ſtarve.]

April 18. At the Aſſizes held at Taunton the 1ſt Inſtant, came on, before the Hon. Mr. Juſtice Gundry, a remarkable Cauſe, wherein Mr. Henry Marſley, an Apothecary of that Town, was Plaintiff, and Mr. Robert Collins, a Shop keeper of Codford St. Peters in Wiltſhire, was Defendant, for Drugs and Medicines adminiſter'd to the Defendant's Wife, who, at the Time they were furniſhed, was eloped from him, and harbour'd by a Relation at Taunton; which being fully proved, and the Law being very clear, that the Huſband in ſuch Caſe, ſhall not be chargeable, tho' for Neceſſaries, a Verdict went for the Defendant.——Dr. Halliard, an eminent Phyſician of Taunton, had brought an Action for his Fees, which was to have been tried the ſame Aſſizes; but the Apothecary failing, the Record was withdrawn, to the great Grief of ſome Mercers, Drapers, Milliners and Mantua makers, who were preſent.

April 30. Tueſday Night came Advice to the Cuſtom-Houſe, that his Majeſty's Sloop of War, the Waſp, Captain May, had taken a Smuggling Veſſel from Bologne, off Dungeneſs, laden with a large Quantity of Cambricks, French Lawns, Brandy, Tea, &c. for the Uſe and Advantage of the Frenchified Part of the Engliſh Nation; the Captain took out four Perſons from the Smuggler into his own Ship for Safety, and manned her with his own Men for the River. It is ſaid the Capture is worth ſeveral Thouſand Pounds.

Extract of a Letter from Bridport, May 1.

'Yeſterday ſailed from hence the Reine Gabrielle, John Le Braſſe, Commander, from Morlaix, laden with above an hundred Hogſheads of Honey, for Dunkirk. The ſaid Ship was on the 25th of March in a violent Storm drove aſhore on our Beach, but all the Hands were ſaved. The Captain, on his coming aſhore, was recommended to Robert Fowler Coade, Eſq; a conſiderable Merchant at Lyme Regis, and accordingly applied to him for Aſſiſtance; and by the Care and Directions of this Gentleman, the ſaid Ship was got off the Beach and brought ſafe into the Harbour with little Damage, which was ſoon repaired, and the whole Cargo ſaved and reſhipp'd intire, without the leaſt Embezzlement from the Country People, though they came down in great Numbers to the Beach the Night the Veſſel was ſtranded, in Hopes of making a Prey of both Ship and Cargo. But by the Courage and Vigilance of Mr. Brown, Officer of this Town, and others he called to his Aſſiſtance, their barbarous Deſign was fruſtrated. Though the Cargo was Honey, they found it would be a ſour Jobb to attempt to pilfer any, and therefore ſoon diſperſed.'

Extract of a Letter from Southampton, May 2.

'Two Buſſes of 80 Tons each are launched at this Port, by Mr. Richard Taunton, Merchant, for the Uſe of the Society of the Free Britiſh Fiſhery; one is called the Norfolk, the other the Newcaſtle. They are reckoned as uſeful Veſſels of that Burthen for the Herring Fiſhery, as any ever built in Holland. Two more Buſſes are on the Stocks, and will ſoon be finiſhed.'

We hear that his Royal Highneſs, the Prince of Wales, was laſt Saturday propoſed to the General Court of the Free Britiſh Fiſhery, to be their Governor; and 'tis ſaid that his Majeſty has graciouſly condeſcended to Honour that Propoſal with his Approbation, and to promiſe that Society his Royal Favour and Protection.

BOSTON, June 24.

Extract of a Letter from a Gentleman in Nova Scotia, June 13.

"They have lately had a Skirmiſh at Chinecto with the Enemy: Major Latterell went out with what we call a reconnoitering Party, I think of about 170 Men, as well as with ſome Deſign of laying an Ambuſcade for the Indians; which failing, it ſeems the Major, being curious to know if the Indians had any real Courage, croſs'd the Brook, and made towards a Kind of Blockhouſe, which both French and Indians inſtantly quitted, but as ſoon returned and took Poſſeſſion of it again, and fir'd a Swivel, which wounded one of our Men, and help'd to cauſe them, with croſſing the Brook at the ſame Time, to break their Ranks. By this Time there was a general Alarm on the Side of the Enemy, which gathered together from all Parts, to the Number of near 400 Men, as we ſuppoſe, made up of the Rebels, Canadians and Indians; when we we, on our Side, were obliged to give Ground, tho' slowly, and with Regularity; the Enemy who out-did them in Numbers, endeavoured to surround them, and cut them off from the Ford.—In short, after a regular Retreat, attended with frequent Skirmishes, the Major and his Troops got safe back to the Fort, with only three Men slightly wounded, and having killed three of the Enemy, whom we have entire Reason to believe, were of Distinction, as the following Day their Funeral Solemnities were discovered by our Glasses to be conducted with a good Deal of Ceremony.—One of those killed was on Horseback, and certainly an Officer, and was knock'd down within 50 Yards of us, on plain Ground.
